MISSION STATEMENT

In appreciation of the role the Library plays in the quality of life in this area, the Friends of the Briggs Lawrence County Public Library provides financial, advocacy and volunteer support to the Library, and functions consistently with the goals and objectives of the Library and its Board of Trustees.

Support of the Briggs Lawrence County Public Library is made possible in a part through the generosity of our Friends members. Friends will sponsor a wide range of free Library programs and services throughout the year that have a positive impact on people in our community. Your support will also ensure additional benefits for our libraries and staff.

By joining the Friends you can enjoy these exciting benefits:

- 10% discount on book sale purchases
- Entrance to opening night of the book sales
- The library's calendar of events mailed to you throughout the year
- Invitations to library receptions & events
- Volunteer opportunities
- Many other benefits!
